The crowd lets their balloons go at the sound of the gun.

Only the good times are what we often remember. The school year of 1985-86 brought forth good times to all. The freshmen's good times were highlighted with the ordering of class rings and class jackets. Sophomores had their good times also. This was the year they gained some "seniority." They had successfully completed the first of their four years at high school. Juniors were now able to attend the gala event of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom. Juniors were now considered to be "upper" classmen. But no one could claim to be "The Upper Classmen" besides those who are known as Seniors. The Senior good times began with their freshman year. They went from receiving their class rings to ordering announcements and invitations for their graduation.

The good times that were shared by all were the social and sports events of the year. There were always fun and exciting events and occurrences throughout the 1985-86 school year at FHS. These moments will always be remembered. For they were — ONLY THE GOOD TIMES.

STUDENT LIFE

The Best of Times

Ah, summer! It means the start of a new life. No more school, no more teachers, no more nothing. Just fun and sun. It's a time to relax and be with friends. You can stay up late and not have to worry about getting up in the wee hours of the morning. Summer brings on the essential three R's — Recreation, Relaxation, and the most important, Romance. Summer romances are sweet and usually don't last long, but oh how they make summer complete. Recreation — swimming, tennis, concerts, movies, and cruising, these are just some of the things we do to keep us busy. Relaxation, laying in the sun, sleeping late and just hanging out with friends is a part of a normal summer day. Then before you know it — School! This means homework, teachers and no more summer nights. But while summer's here we might as well enjoy it and get all the fun and sun we can.

Brendie Hiatt chows down on nachos at a party.

Sherrie Emmons relaxs in the warm summer sun.

Julie Mast pumps gas in New York for her summer job.

Karen and Stacie pose with their new found friend.

Summer con't

Kelly Wilson gives Tom Cox a smooch on the cheek.

Shantel Mann freaks out from the summer heat.

Sisters Nannette and Michelle chow down after a swim.

Friendship is a great thing, shown by Missy and Sherrie.

Robin Bell relaxes in the pool.

Sherrie and Laura relax and do the natural, talk on the phone.

Summer Workshops '85

In the summer of '85, many students of FHS attended a variety of camps and workshops. Tony Warner, Mike O'Donnell, Steve Ferguson, and Rich Davidson attended boys state. Kathy Grimme, Marsha Edwards, and Barbie Brashear attended girls state.

Our best runners went to running camp at Anderson College. Those who went were Seniors Kelly Wilson and Rich Davidson and Sophomore, Jennifer Phillips. Wilson exclaimed, "It was so much fun. I met a lot of people that I really miss. Going to this camp helped me decide where I want to go to college. The track coach — wants me to run for A.C."

There were several freshman boys that went to several different basketball camps. Chris Farley and J.D. Wilson attended a camp in Illinois. Nathan Ebert and Randy Hart went to Purdue, and those who attended Indiana Central were Chris Clouser and Scott Jackson. Three girls on the Eaglite and Eagles' Wings staff attended journalism camps to improve their skills and bring home some new ideas. Senior, Cathy Lawson attended IU to learn more about school newspapers. Lawson said, "It was the greatest experience. I've never done so much homework in my whole life in those two weeks. It was great meeting other people with the same interest." Laurie Miller and Yvette Shell attended BSU to learn more about yearbooks. They came back with some new ideas and big plans.

Seniors Yvette Shell and Laurie Miller show that the workshops aren't all work.

Laurie and Yvette ham it up after a long day of classes.

VICTORY!

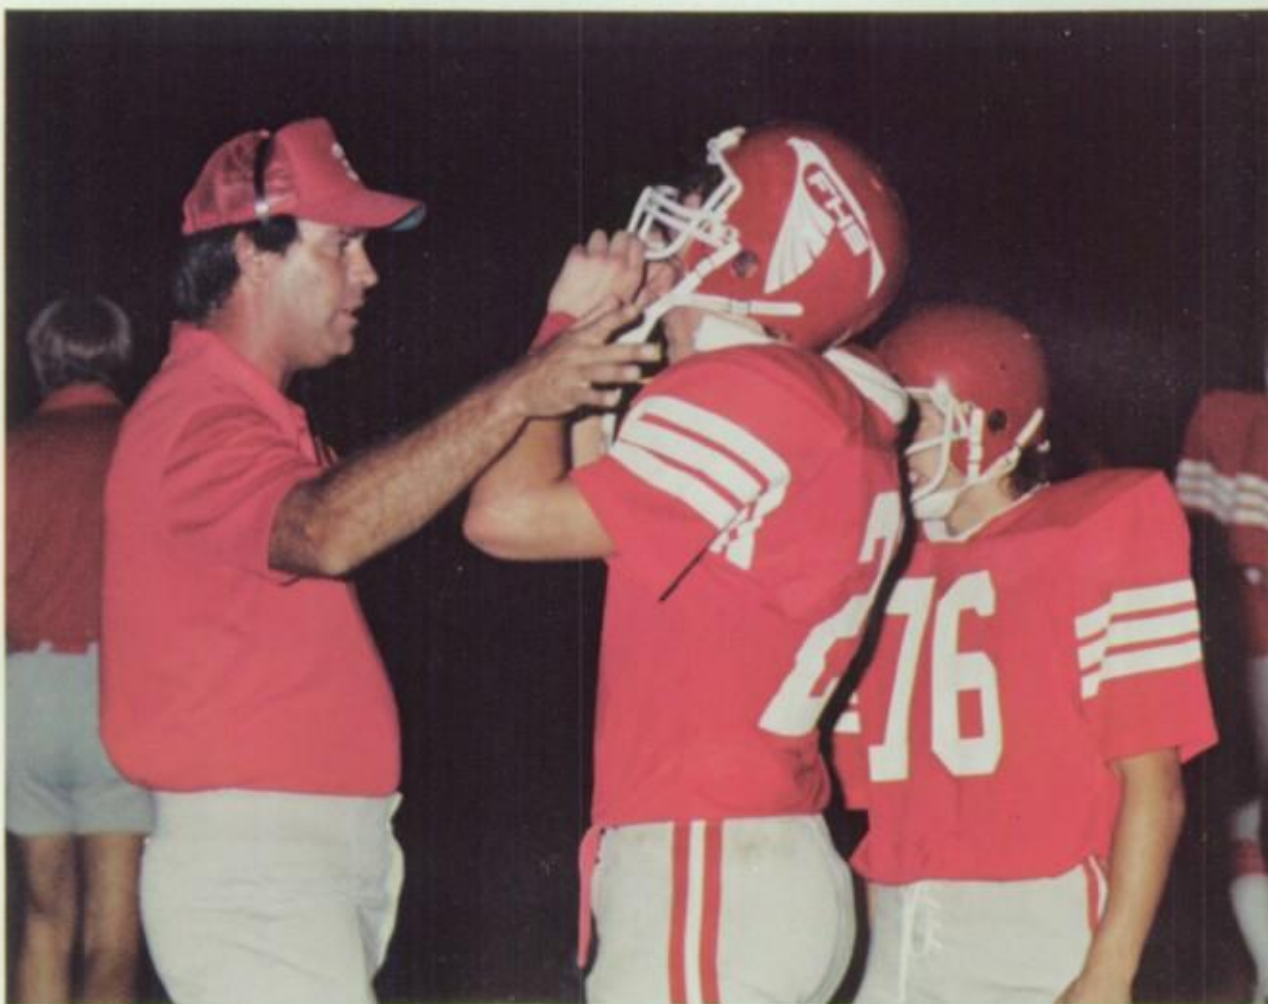

Spirits soared and fans roared with the excitement of the homecoming victory. The Eagles beat the Northeastern Knights 32-0. At half-time, Vicki King, escorted by Ray Sipes, was crowned as the 1985 Homecoming Queen. Other members of the royal court consisted of Rena Bott, Tracy Jones, Tracy Brook, Shelly Crouch and Kathy Grimme.

Proceeding the game, was the traditional homecoming parade. The annual homecoming dance followed the game which ended this exciting night for the mighty Eagles.

Mr. Urban gives Junior Dick Robinette some last minute advice before re-entering the game.

Head to head confrontation is hot on the football field as the varsity football team jousts the Knights to an Eagle win.

After being crowned 1985 Homecoming Queen Senior Vicki King and escort Ray Sipes smile big for the cameras.

After hearing her name announced, Senior Vicki King receives a kiss from her escort.

The Eagle offense scrambles to another touchdown.

Homecoming con't.

The homecoming court consisted of these senior girls and their escorts: Tracy Jones and Tom Mercer, Kathy Grimme and Kent Mosbaugh, Shelly Crouch and Brad Martin, Tracy Brook and Phil Norris, Rena Bott and Brent Parker.

The underclass court consisted of: Juniors, Nannette Barnett and Roy Kelly; Sophomores, Tina Sumner and David Anderson; and Freshman Lana Delinger, and Chris Farley.

Smiling big, Senior Rena Bott is escorted by '85 graduate Brent Parker

The band shows off their winning style during halftime.

Fads and Fashions

Sophomore, Ryan Bennett and Junior, Dick Robinette show two common styles at FHS.

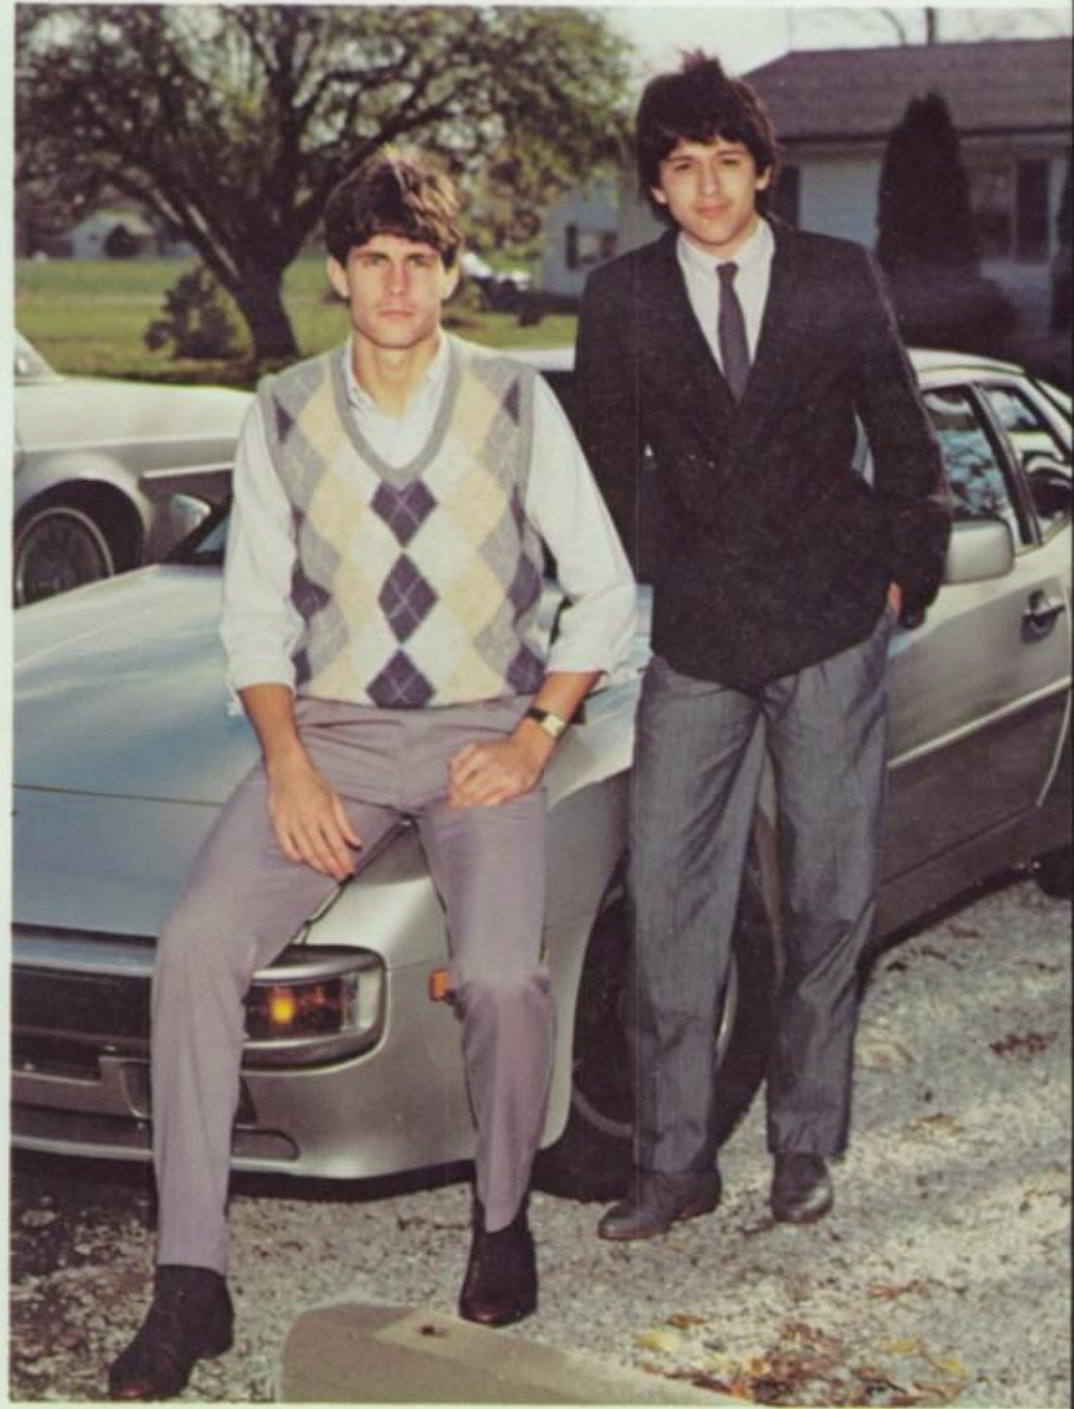

Seniors Rena Bott, Yvette Shell, and Laurie Miller model four popular styles: Jeans, Dress Pants, Skirts, and Jack-ets.

Showing a popular style of shaker knit sweaters and stirrup pants are Juniors Lisa Jackson, Libby Crowder, and Freshman Cassey Cox.

Juniors Troy O'Neil and Jon Walker are dressed in their pleated dress pants and sweaters.

Seniors Tony Warner and Brent Turner are quite an eye-catcher in front of this Porsche.

Dressing alike in their mini skirts, tanks, and shaker knit sweaters are Junior, Nannette Barnette and Sophomore Michelle Barnette. They're sisters too!

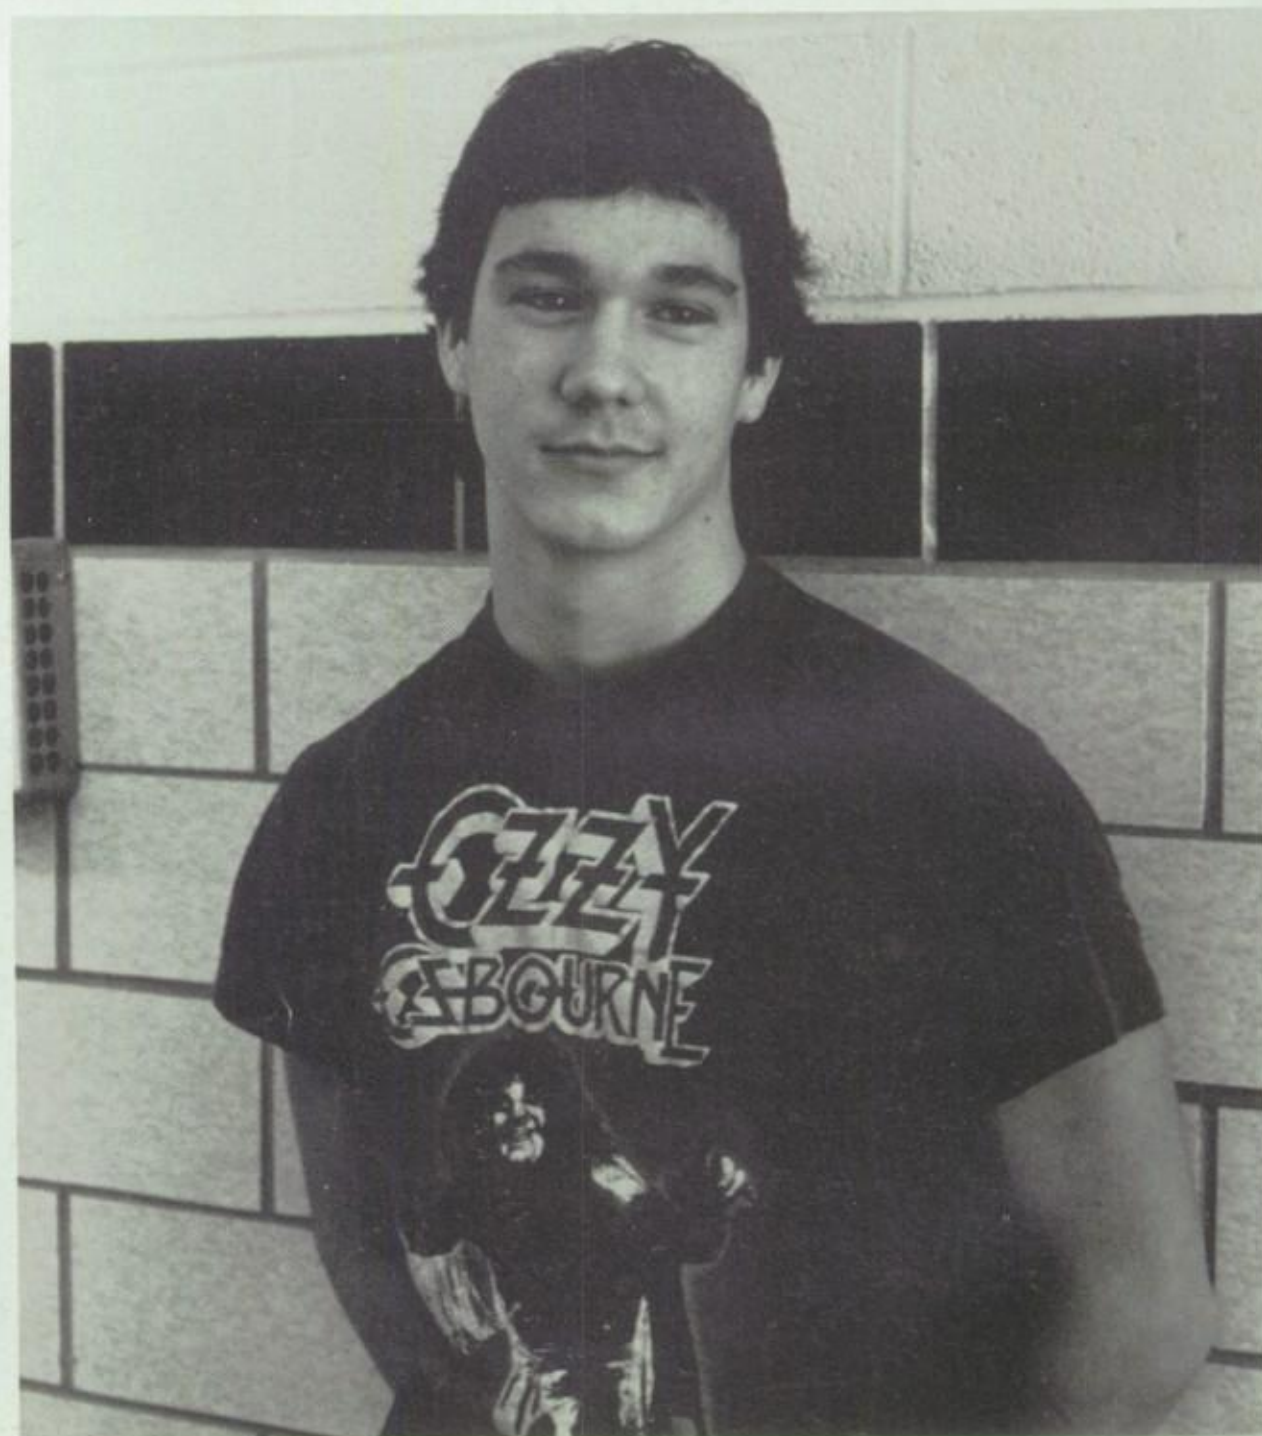

More Fads and Fashions

As the bright, fluorescent colors faded out a brand new style took over. Miami Vice, a very popular television show, brought about pleated dress pants, blazer jackets, tank tops, and the casual dress style for guys. Jazz oxford shoes and perhaps a shirt and tie were still popular with many guys. Shaker sweaters, tank tops, stylish jeans, and stirrup pants were most popular among girls. More and more students are finding that it's not that bad to dress up, but no matter what, the faded jeans, sweatshirts, and dirty tennis shoes will always be "in style."

Freshman, Christy Dowling shows the style she likes to wear, which is popular among lots of students.

Senior, Kelly Lawson models in her jumpsuit and blouse.

A popular attire for senior Doyle Hayes is a concert shirt.

Looking nice but comfortable is Senior, Vicki King.

Showing the new fad of flowered pants is Junior, Teresa Harper.

Junior, Tom Cox and Senior, Brady Landon show the comfortable style among guys.

Senior Tracy Brook loves her 1971 Corvette.

Senior Jim McCord thinks hot rodding is more fun in his 1977 Chevy truck.

Even in the cold, junior Katrina Longnecker likes to show her 1967 Firebird.

Junior Troy O'Neil enjoys hot rodding in his 1974 Firebird.

The Best of HOT RODS

"Well Hot Rod Magazine what do you think?" Once brought together, the FHS students seem to create a car show of their own.

Interest in the car craze is obvious. Whether it be a Chevy or a Ford, that 'special' Hot Rod is displayed with pride. The paint job, chrome, wheels, and rims are a few of the areas that make a Hot Rod what it is.

Some popular interests for the car lover are car magazines, car shows, and drag races. A lot of car information can be found in HOT ROD MAGAZINE, CAR CRAFT MAGAZINE, and SUPER CHEVY MAGAZINE. All three of these organizations sponsor their own car shows. There are local car shows in Alexandria, Elwood, Tipton, and Fairmount. Those car lovers who enjoy loud running engines and the smell of burnt rubber, may attend drag races at Muncie or Indianapolis.

Whatever the interest, the car craze is definitely alive!

HOT ROD

Junior Shelly Maslack is proud to sport her 1974 Z28 Camaro.

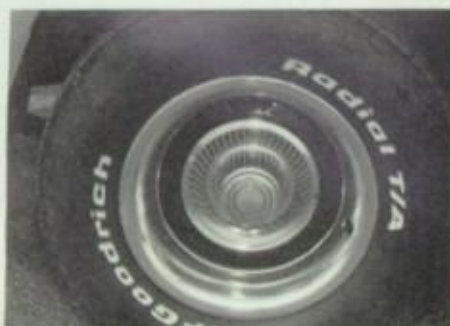

Senior Mike O'Donnell enjoys off-roading in his 1983 Chevy 4x4.

Junior Darin Minnick is in the process of restoring his 1971 Chevelle.

Sharp looking rims are a definite eye catcher on a Hot Rod.

"We Like the People Here Best"

This year Frankton High School had two foreign exchange students: Fumiyo Ishida from Japan, and Sylvia Merz from West Germany. They both lived with families here in Frankton.

When asked what she liked best Sylvia said, "I like the people here the best." Fumiyo agreed that the people are the best. Fumiyo and Sylvia both agreed that their most treasurable souvenir that would go home with them would be the memories of their Frankton friends and family. Both agreed homesickness passed quickly once they got involved. That must have worked well because neither one of them wanted to leave their friends in the United States.

Sylvia and Fumiyo show their Frankton pride.

Fumiyo is with one of her many friends she met in Frankton.

Sylvia decides the concession is best for lunch.

Did both Sylvia and Mr. Sipe get caught by surprise?

Fumiyo smiles pretty for the camera.

Sylvia and Fumiyo were featured in a story in the Anderson Herald.

They stand by the half-mast flag in memory of the death of the space shuttle members.

To My Best Friend . . .
MY SISTER ANGIE
You were always there
to be my guide,
Never far away
standing by my side.

You were always there
when I was blue,
Remember — Sis,
I'm here for you too.

You were there
when sometimes I was mad,
And lended a shoulder to cry on when I was very sad.

You were there
each and every day
Keeping things going each and every way.

Billy,
I have never loved anyone
The way I love you
You are my forever love
You are my dream come true.
I dream of having you hold me close
Throughout the hours of night
Waking with you next to me
In the early morning light.
I dream of being in love with you
Every moment of my life
To have your ring around my finger
And become your promised wife.
I just want you to know
Exacrly how I feel
I am deeply in love with you
I know my feelings are real.
I just want to treat you good
And show you how much I care
I only want to make you happy
And give you my life to share.
I will never hurt you
You mean so very much
I love you more than ever before
You have that perfect touch.
Our love will last a lifetime
We will never part
I have just one last thing to say:
I love you with all my heart!

Always, Karen

You were there
when I couldn't speak, Sometimes I was down
troubled and very weak.

Now I am here to "Thank You" for all the times we spent together
All those good memories
I'm going to treasure forever.

I love you, Sis
You're in my heart.
We have such a relationship to ever part.

We are the best sisters
just you wait and see,
We love each other very much
it will always be you & me!

Paige Warner '86

SECRET LOVER

If ever I am a part
Like I was before
I hope you have the heart
To tell me even more.

When we were together
When you gave me my chance,
I never thought more of you
Than just a small romance.

Now that my chance is over
My love for you is stronger
But now it's too late
I can't wait any longer.

Please remember our Sunday
in the park
When we were hopelessly in love
And remember the nights we spent Staring at the stars above.

It's very difficult to take
Just one last glance
When all you've given me
Is only one last chance.

CLASS OF '86

I walked into school as scared as could be Dying for the day that I would be free.
I was feeling alone, still young and small Merely a freshman walking down the hall.
My sophomore year came with a wink of an eye
I was so sick of homework
I wanted to cry.
With two full years left to go
I wanted to quit, it went so slow.
Soon I was a junior running to class
Taking it easy, just having a blast.
My classes were hard, I felt boggled down
But my grades were good so
I just goofed around.
Now I'm a senior, June's
coming up fast
We'll see each other then,
but that may be the last.
Everyone will be gone with a life all their own
And all of my friends with whom I have grown.
No more dances, no homework at last
High school goes by much too fast.
I'll never forget it as it draws to an end
Most of all I'll miss my friends.
I will miss you all very,
very much
So please take my address and keep in touch.
I'll grasp my diploma as tears
fall from my face.
I never thought I'd say it but . . .
I'm going to miss this place!

A NEED TO TOUCH

Loneliness, emptiness
The need to touch
To be touched
Wanting to want
To be wanted, understood
Searching for something, someone
Unable to see
Too dark, no light
Lost forever.

Then, out of the darkness
A hand reaches Touches
Wanting to want
Flash of light
No more darkness.

No more loneliness, emptiness
Happy at last Touching
Being touched
Search is ended
No more darkness
Found at last
Being understood.

Suddenly
Questions, fear
Uncertainty
Will the touching end?
Searching for answers
Getting questions
Light fading fast Gone.

Loneliness, emptiness
The need to touch
To be touched
Wanting to want
To be wanted, understood
Searching for something, someone
Unable to see
Too dark, no light
Lost forever.

DON'T QUIT

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit-Rest if you must, but don't quit.
Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As every one of us sometimes learns,
And many a person turns
about,
When they might have won
had they stuck it out.
Don't give up though the

LOST LOVERS

I went by his house
just to see his face, and to remember the
times of his long embrace.
To look at him again
made me hurt deep inside,
this hurt I cannot show,
this hurt I have to hide.
He told me he loved me-
it just isn't fair
Sometimes I wonder
if he really cared.
When I see him with her
my heart seems to fall.
Why does he act like
there was nothing at all.
If only she could see,
all there was with you and me
I'm sure she wouldn't hold you tight, when I'm standing there.
I know she has to realize how much I still do care.
Believe me when I say I truly do love you.
Even though I know in ways,
she probably loves you too.

pace seems slow.
You may succeed with another blow.
Often the struggler has given up,
When he might have captured
the victor's cup;
And he learned too late
When the night came down
How close he was to the golden crown.
Success is failure turned inside out-
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit-It's when things seem worst when you mustn't quit.

Thanks Laura.

TO KELLY

Things aren't always perfect between us
but everything
worth anything has flaws
in it.
No one is perfect
therefore, no
relationship can be perfect.
Often by seeing the dry brown petals
in a rose
you appreciate more the vivid red petals
that are beautiful
And I do appreciate our special relationship which is so very important to me.
As we continue to grow as individuals and as one,
our relationship
will continue to grow more beautiful and stronger
every day.

I love you!

The Elected Officers were: Tina Sumner, Secretary, Becky Faust, President, Stacey Morgan, Treasurer, and Lana Elder, Vice President.

The sophomore class started the year by receiving their class jackets. There was a different type of class jacket sold this year. They were made of nylon with the name and Frankton (put on the front) with the year one graduates and an eagle on the back. The sophomores were the first to pick these types of jackets.

Next was Homecoming. Floats weren't made this year, but the sophomores still participated by having the Prince and Princess. Tina Sumner was voted Princess and Todd Wiener was voted Prince.

More Freshmen

For incoming freshmen, high school may seem very different than junior high. There's always a big change in attitudes because when one is an 8th grader their 'big stuff,' but then all of a sudden one's at the bottom and has to start all over to get back to the top.

The freshmen class got the big excitement of their year by being able to order their class rings in the fall, and class jackets in the spring.

Top represent the freshmen class are the class officers: Lana Dellinger (Pres.), Chris Cage (V. Pres.) Elizabeth Burris (Sec.), and Gail Bennett (Treas.)

Myrnych Richman is the new assistant principal at Frankton High School. Mr. Richman comes to us from Anderson High School. During his 25 years there he taught Science, was assistant principal, and dean of boys' at various times.

Mr. Richman feels Frankton has a very responsive student body. He said one of the goals of the administration is to try to get the students to use more self-discipline in order to give Frankton a more mature student body.

On the faculty, Mr. Richman feels they are hard-working and that the staff is small enough to learn their names easily.

Mr. Richman said that he would like students to remember that he was fair, tried to help them, and that "We tried to help them get an education."

Mrs. Folsom passes out tootsie rolls to Health Club members.

Mr. Humphrey, Mrs. Small, Mr. Gordy, Ms. Tomlin, Mr. Richman, and Mr. Maish all joined the staff last fall.

Mr. Gordy poses for the camera in the main hall.

1985-86 The OPINION

On January 28, the Space Shuttle Challenger exploded a minute and twelve seconds after a perfect liftoff. Seven astronauts were killed, among them Christa McAuliffe, the first teacher in space.

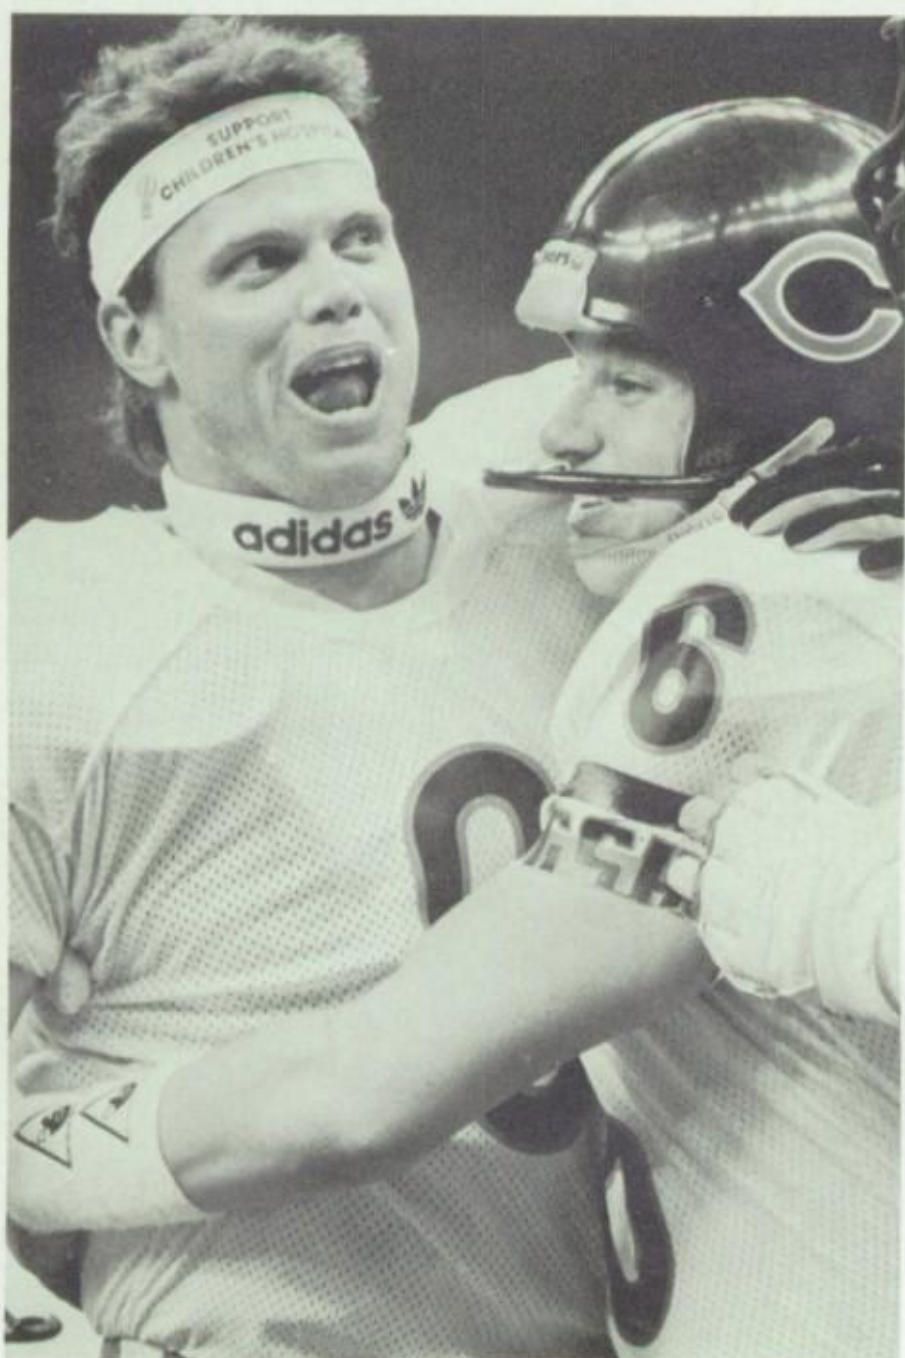

Ten years after Saigon fell, Americans commemorated the soldiers who died there by visiting the Vietnam Memorial.

George Brett and Bret Saberhagen embrace after the Kansas City Royals won the World Series by defeating the St. Louis Cardinals.

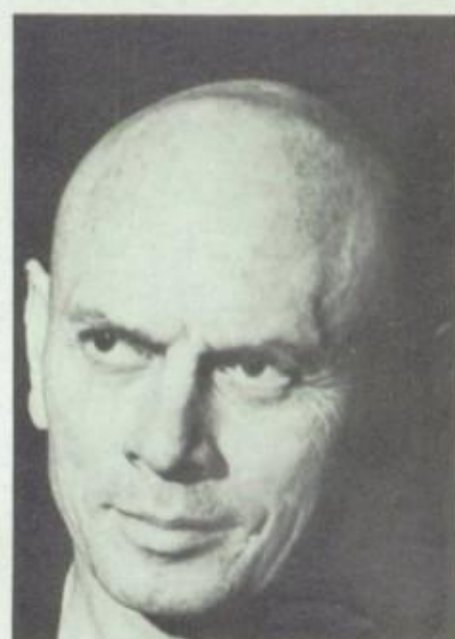

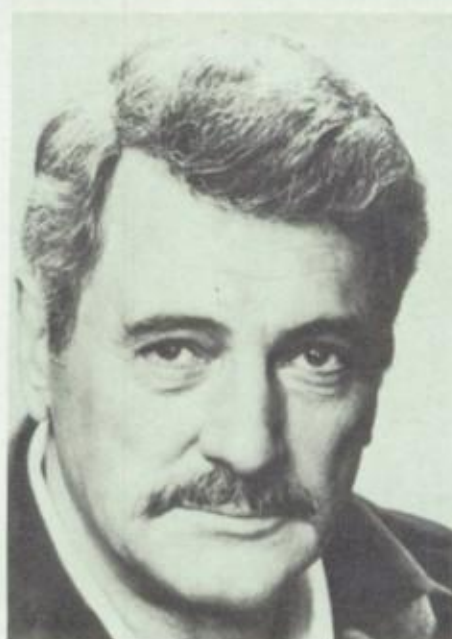

Year In Review

President Reagan and Mikhail Gorbachev chat in front of a fireplace during the Geneva Summits in November.

Bruce Springsteen rocked the nation as he toured the country. The Boss's songs were listened to by people of all ages.

Orson Welles 70, Lloyd Nolan 83, Rock Hudson 59, and Yul Brynner 65, all actors, passed away late in 1985.

Jim McMahon and Kevin Butler celebrate after the Chicago Bears defeated the New England Patriots 46-10 in Super Bowl XX.

Thirty-nine people were held hostage on TWA Flight 847 by Sheite Muslims hijackers. They were released after seventeen days. One American was killed.

7,000 people died in Mexican earthquakes in September. Hundreds of others are still considered missing.

LOCAL

Ryan White, the boy from Kokomo who is a victim of AIDS, topped the Indiana news throughout the year. He is still fighting to return to school.

Convicted killer Gertrude Baniszewski was paroled late in 1985 amid public outcry. She had served a 20-year sentence for the murder of a young girl.

In February 1985, prisoners at the Pendleton Reformatory started an uprising. Before it was settled twelve people had been stabbed and three held hostage.

Closer to home, the citizens of Anderson were shocked when six-year old Tamika Nicole Larry was murdered in early September. Her killer was charged later that week. It was the first child murder in Anderson history.

Also, here at F.H.S. you may have noticed architects wandering the halls. The building will be remodeled as part of a 12 million dollar West Central Schools upgrading project involving Frankton and Lapel Schools.

Pete Rose completes hit 4,192, breaking Ty Cobb's hitting record. The game against the San Diego Padres was stopped for seven minutes after Rose reached first base.

137 people died in a Delta Airlines crash near Dallas. Only 31 people survived the crash.

Close but no cigar

With seconds left in the game, our Eagles had the ball at our end of the court. The fans were roaring as we trailed by just one basket to the Arabians. With three seconds left the ball was in the air heading towards the net. Unfortunately, it bounced off the rim, landed into the hands of the opponents and he was fouled. The Arabians had the highest score, but the Eagles were still the winners to us. Some say it was the referees' fault, while others say the students were seated too high-up to cheer and be heard. Whatever the case, the city schools and sectional rivals now realize that Frankton never gives a hand-out victory, it's always a battle until the final buzzer.

F.H.S. is still the best to us.

What does SADD stand for? Students Against Driving Drunk, a name which now has meaning to millions of high school students. Schools have organized SADD chapters for some of the following reasons: To help save their own lives and the lives of others, to educate students concerning the problem of drinking and driving, and to increase public awareness and prevention of this problem everywhere. The first meeting at FHS was December 12, after John and Celeste Reed spoke. Mr. Reed speaks at many high schools giving his testimonial about driving under the influence of alcohol and killing a young girl. After this, 139 students signed up to join the SADD chapter at FHS.

The purpose of SADD is to organize students from across the country to combat the #1 killer of their age group — death due to drinking and driving. SADD educates students and helps each student become aware of the alcohol problem that exists on the local, state, and national levels.

SADD's planned activities were: personalized T-shirts for members to purchase, a bake sale to raise funds for activities, and PA announcements during home games urging youth and adults not to drink and drive.

Junior Miss; a great experience

Ready to perform her dance-twirl routine, Laurie Miller waits nervously.

For physical fitness, Laurie and Julie did a dance to "Contact," by the Pointer Sisters.

Mast and Miller await the beginning of the Junior Miss Competition.

Julie Mast plays "Für Elise" for her talent.

The annual Madison County Junior Miss was November 9 at the Alexandria H.S. Auditorium. This scholarship program was for Senior girls from Madison County. Senior girls from Alexandria, Highland, Madison Heights, Anderson, Pendleton Heights, Madison Grant, and Frankton participated in this pageant. Two girls from Frankton H.S. were involved, Julie Mast and Laurie Miller.

This program was an opportunity, a challenge, and something that took a lot of time and a lot of courage. Mast said, "It was an excellent experience. I learned a lot about other people and I really had a great time. The girls are super friends."

Junior Miss judging standards and ideals are based on qualities and characteristics — lasting values that make up the total young woman. Half of the judging procedures were behind the scenes in scholastic achievement and judges interview. On stage presentations make up the other 50% of judging—physical fitness, poise & appearance, and creativity and performing arts.

"Every girl in the pageant had something special about them, that's why they were in it. I was so nervous right before the pageant, but then two of my very good friends, showed up and came back to the dressing room and told me good luck. I felt a lot better knowing that my friends were there supporting me!" exclaimed Miller.

The winner was, Annette Retherford from Madison Grant.

Couples: who's with who Love, does anyone really know what it is? Just when you think you've got it under control, BOOM, it hits you with a rock. Love makes you do some pretty strange things. I'm sure everyone has acted like a fool just to catch someone's eye. It makes you happy, and it makes you feel like you're on top of the world. Then all of the sudden love takes a twist and leaves you brokenhearted. You cry, you feel blue and for what, a guy or girl who has broken your heart? Well just think, you're not the one who is losing, they are. So keep your head up and keep smiling cause the next thing you know you're in love again.

Here are a few of this year's couples, but who knows who will still be together next year. We'll just have to wait and see.

Mass Media; Behind the Scenes

A non-stop flow of hard work and responsibility goes along with being a member of the Eaglite and Eagles' Wings' staffs.

Deadlines have to be met and the news has to be reported accurately.

Laurie Miller, editor-in-chief of the yearbook, said, "The class in general is not that bad even with all of the work, because this is one of the few classes that you are treated as an adult and made responsible for your own jobs and actions."

Working for every one;

Student Council:

This year the Student Council, and many other clubs, such as Honor Society, F.F.A., Drama club, Spanish and French club, the office, and Athletic office all pitched in and bought a marquee for Frankton High. If you wanted to put a message on the marquee, it would have cost you $1.00 and the message would stay on the marquee for 2 days. Any club that wanted to put a message on the marquee could, at no charge.

During the football season the Student Council sponsored the Homecoming dance and bought the flowers for the Homecoming queen Candidates. They cost them about $150. They also had a Christmas dance during the school week, which was something no club had ever done before.

HONOR SOCIETY

Has sleepwalking become a new fad??? No, it's just the Half awake honor society members dragging themselves into the library at the alarming time of 7:20 for a meeting. In spite of this the honor society had a busy year. It started off the year with the traditional induction of new members. There were fourteen new additions made that brought the membership to twenty-four total members. This academic group is sponsored by Mr. Ivan Lamaster.

Throughout the course of their year, the honor society had a coat check for all the home basketball games, sponsored a sweetheart dance, attended a Pacer game, went on a ski trip at Mount Wawasee, and was recognized by the Lions' Club with a dinner. Besides all of these activities, the group worked hard academically to maintain the honor of their position.

Seniors: Cindy Rybolt, Amy Hutson, Kathy Grimmie, and Tracy Brook play hosts to the newly inducted juniors.

OUR FUTURE FARMERS

The F.F.A. had a very competitive 1985-86 year. They received 2nd in the county at the district poultry contest, and 1st in the county at the crop judging contest. They also participated in Dairy judging.

F.F.A. isn't all judging and hard work. They also travel and have many fun activities.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Future Homemakers of America started out well this year. They started out by selling cookbooks to raise some money for the club. After the fund raising project, they had a pizza party.

To show their spirit, they decorated the halls for Valentine's Day. They sold red paper lace hearts to put on the lockers with a special message.

During the cold winter months they made a lot of people happy by Christmas Caroling. After that they had another pizza party.

The year was full of fun, but work too!

Cadet Teaching — A Learning Experience

Pictured left to right: Gayle Silvey, Jackie Alexander, Scott Hoover, Angie Garrison, Naomi Davis.

Remember the times you sat in class and struggled over a test wishing you were the teacher instead of the student?

Well, five seniors experienced the job of being a teacher through cadet teaching. The five seniors who participated in this program were: Angie Garrison, Scott Hoover, Gayle Silvey, Jacki Alexander, and Naomi Davis. One senior, Naomi Davis, summed up her feelings on being a teacher by saying, "I really liked it, it's a great experience everyone should try it."

Health Club Spreads Sunshine

The Health Club of FHS tries to spread sunshine to as many people as possible. In the beginning of the year, Health Club sold tootsie rolls to help the Kidney Foundation. At Christmas the club went caroling to local nursing homes. After caroling the club went to Pizza Hut.

Two times during the year they baked brownies for the Visiting Nurses Association. Valentine's Day came and carnations were sold by Health Club members. They were delivered during first period. Most clubs did special projects during Sectional. Health Club was no exception, they sold Eagle Pops.

Show Choir Shows Their Stuff

Mrs. Andis, sponsor, concentrates on playing the piano.

Show Choir was busy this year with many activities. This year Show Choir was under the direction of Mrs. Andis. When asked her definition of Show Choir she replied, "Show Choir is an experience which involves singing, dancing, fun, fellowship, and a lot of hard work as well as a good educational experience."

Throughout the year they sang at churches, clubs, and also participated in the ISSMA state and district contests. Then it was off to Orlando, Florida, where the choir participated in the International Music Festival. They had many fund raisers to help pay for their trip. They sold candy bars, chocolate santas and rabbits, and they also had a car wash. Show Choir finished out the year by singing at the Frankton High School Variety Show.

Le Club de Francais

Each year, the French Club sponsors a trip to a French restaurant. This year they ate at La Tour in Indianapolis. They raised money for the trip by sponsoring a dance after a home basketball game.

On December 9, the French Club joined with the Spanish Club to have a Christmas party. All of the French club members brought French items to make traditional French food. They had the Spanish Club members bring Spanish dishes.

Following the routine of past years, the Spanish club kept themselves very busy. On Oct. 11, the club hosted their annual chili supper, which proved to be a big success. In December, they joined together with the French club for a Christmas party. The two clubs had a scavenger hunt, where members of the Spanish club were victorious. The Spanish Honor Society then traveled to Muncie on Feb. 27, where they enjoyed a fine meal at Chi-Chi's restaurant. On March 13, Sabrina Dietz, Dori Etchison, Pat Karr, Julie Mast, Stacy Morgan, and Marla Summers were welcomed as new members into Spanish Honor Society.

Helping Hands In The Library

The Media Club members work hard to keep our library as clean and neat as possible.

The club had several fund raisers this year such as selling calendars, note pads, Christmas things, and selling M&M's in the spring. The money that they made will go towards a computer that they hope to purchase.

Media Club and Student Council went to Chi-Chi's on March 17.

To be in this club you must fill out an application and you may, (it is not required) work in the library during your study hall.

Vocational Students Train For The Future

In today's times, if you don't have the specific training, it is difficult to get a job.

For a life career, a high school diploma may no longer be sufficient.

It is possible to achieve a higher-paid position right after high school.

Vocational training is offered to students of Junior and Senior status with 16 credits. There are many skills offered.

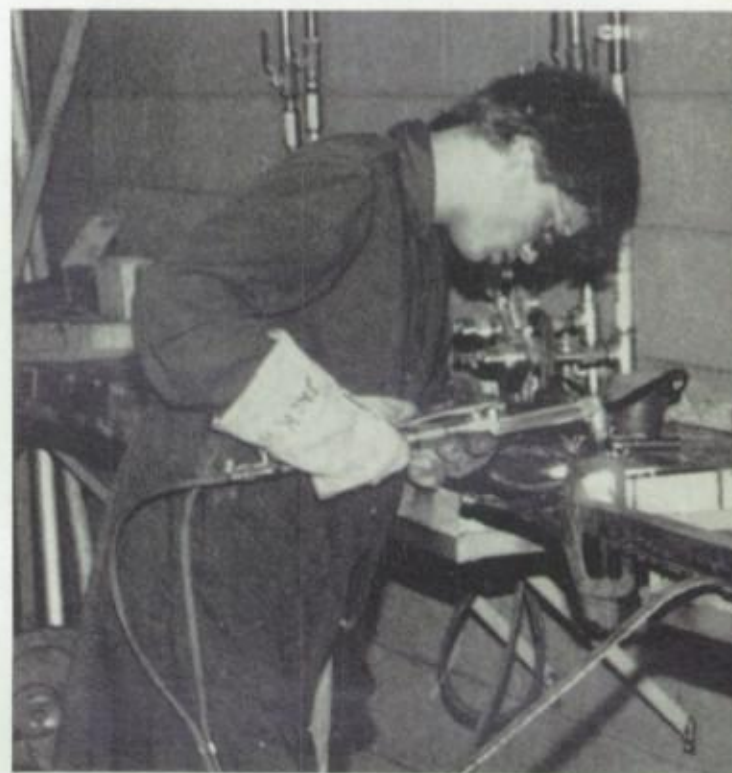

Graphic Arts, Computers, Building Trades and Business Training are just a few examples of the skills that are offered.

The two vocational schools are located in Anderson and Elwood.

Students have their choice to go to vocational school during the morning or afternoon.

Second Year to the Hoosier Dome

The F.H.S. marching band qualified to perform in the Hoosier Dome, for the second year in a row.

Their contests consisted of a Kokomo Invitational, district at Winchester, regional at Kokomo, and state at the Hoosier Dome in Indianapolis.

At the district, the band received a first division and also placed first overall, they took awards for marching and general effects. This allowed them to move on to regionals.

At the regionals, they received a first division but fifth place overall. This was a very close contest but once again the band qualified for state.

The band placed seventh in class D at the Hoosier Dome. This was a first experience for junior, Kelinda Eden. She commented "It was scary and also hard because of the artificial grass, but it was a lot of fun."

Drum majors again this year were, Julie Mast and Scott Hoover. Officers included president, Daryl Hoppes, vice president, Tim Fettig, secretary, Laura Cunningham and treasurer, Marsha Edwards.

At solo and ensemble Julie Mast, Becky Faust, Bryce Mallernee and Phil Robbins, all received gold medals for their performances. Receiving silver medals were: Ted Rich and Scott Hoover. Monette and Joy Bardonner took the gold in the duets and Ted Rich and Jamie Dick received the silver. Becky Faust received a perfect score for the fourth time.

The '85-'86 Color Guard was under the direction of Mrs. Debbie Andis. The guard had a total of 16 members, it consisted of 6 rifles and 10 flags.

The guard participated in 5 contests. These contests enabled them to advance to Regionals, but they did not make it to State.

The musical selection for the year was "Miami Vice", "We Build This City", and "Say You, Say Me".

Mrs. Andis said, "Overall we had an outstanding year of hard work, dedication, and accomplishment."

The guard also performed a dance to "Digital Display" at the Variety Show.

DETERMINATION; NOT ENOUGH

The '85 football season was a tough one. For this year's team, their determination to win just wasn't enough. The Eagles won their traditional homecoming game against the Northeastern Knights. This was the Eagles' first win, in a 2 year season, of 13 games. The coaches say that we had a young team. There were many special awards given to the players for their outstanding efforts. There were six most valuable awards given: Defensive back — Senior, Brett Lennon, Offensive back — Junior Tracey Rhodes, Defensive line — Senior Glenn Workman, Offensive line — Senior David Jameson, Offensive player — Sophomore David McPhearson, Defensive player — Senior Brady Landon. The Most Improved award was given to Sophomore Wally Shively.

Lady Eagles . . .

The girls' varsity volleyball team found a big improvement in their record for their 1985 season. They ended the season with a record of 8 wins and 10 losses. This was a much better record than last year's.

The girls were led by a new coach this year. Linda Bailey, the cheerleading sponsor, decided to try her luck at coaching a sport. She led the girls to the semi-final

Junior, Michelle Hellmann received awards for co-most valuable server, most valuable spiker, and most valuable player. The awards for most improved player, co-most valuable server, and best passer went to freshman, Tosha Litsey. A Perfect Season; 10-0

Who says C.C. is all work and no play? Kristy Bishop shows us it isn't.

The 1985 Girls Cross Country team had a very successful season. They went undefeated! Leading the girls through a perfect season was second year coach Mary Clark. She said, "The girls worked hard all year and it paid off." She went on to say that the girls were full of spirit and wanted to win.

Receiving awards at the end of the year were freshman, Angie Clark — most valuable runner, and sophomore, Jennifer Phillips — Most Miles. Kristy Bishop was awarded most improved. The team will only be losing one member, senior — captain Kelly Wilson.

Three girls from the team were recognized for their effort in cross country. Angie Clark, Jennifer Phillips and Kelly Wilson received awards from Bonnie Bell Circle of Excellence.

EAGLES . . .

For the reserve cheerleaders, winning a spirit stick for a day at camp was a real privilege.

is our name

Go-Big-Red! This year the cheerleaders went to Universal Cheerleaders Association (UCA) camp at Ball State University. Here they competed everyday with squads from schools all over the state. They learned many new cheers that they used at football and basketball games. They came home with a spirit stick, which had to be earned by having the most spirit, and many ribbons.

Last summer the girls competed in the 4-H Fair cheerleading competition. Everyone was proud because they made a great effort.

They also attended a gym in Marion where they worked on their gymnastics, double stunts and mounts.

This year the cheerleaders were assigned to players to be their homecoming honeys and sectional sweethearts. This is done to put more pep into the players. The cheerleaders secretly made signs and banners for them and gave them candy. Then the day of the games they told the players who was their secret honey or sweetheart.

The varsity cheerleaders consisted of Seniors — Rena Bott, Brendie Hiatt, Tracy Jones, Rich Davidson, Craig Sumner, Clark Rogers, Brent Turner, and Jamie Dick. Juniors — Angie Arbuckle, Nannette Barnett, and Missi Ritchie.

The reserve cheerleaders consisted of Juniors — Kristy Abel and Libby Crowder. Sophomores — Molly Bolt, Becky Faust, and Tina Sumner.

Wrestle Mania!

The '85-'86 wrestling season didn't turn out quite like the Eagle team had hoped. They ended the season with a record of 4-9-1. The wrestlers seemed to do better as individuals than as a team.

The wrestlers finished 5th at the MEC and they placed 2nd behind Wes-Del at the Sectional.

The Eagles had eight wrestlers advance to the Regionals, they were: Glenn Workman, Mike LeVeque, Tom Cox, Todd Wiener, Todd Miller, Lee Ballinger, Shawn Simpson, and Darrin Whetsel. Workman and LeVeque both advanced to the Semi-state.

The wrestler who was awarded Most Valuable was Glenn Workman. Lee Ballinger got Most Improved wrestler. Getting the award for most pins was Glenn Workman and for most takedowns was Todd Miller.

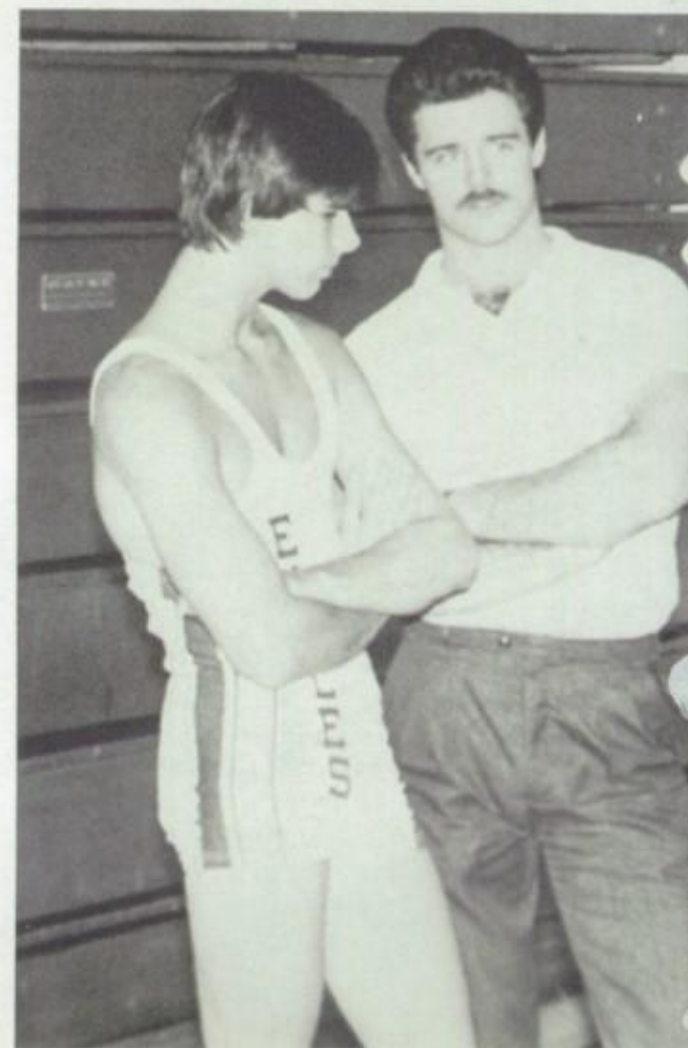

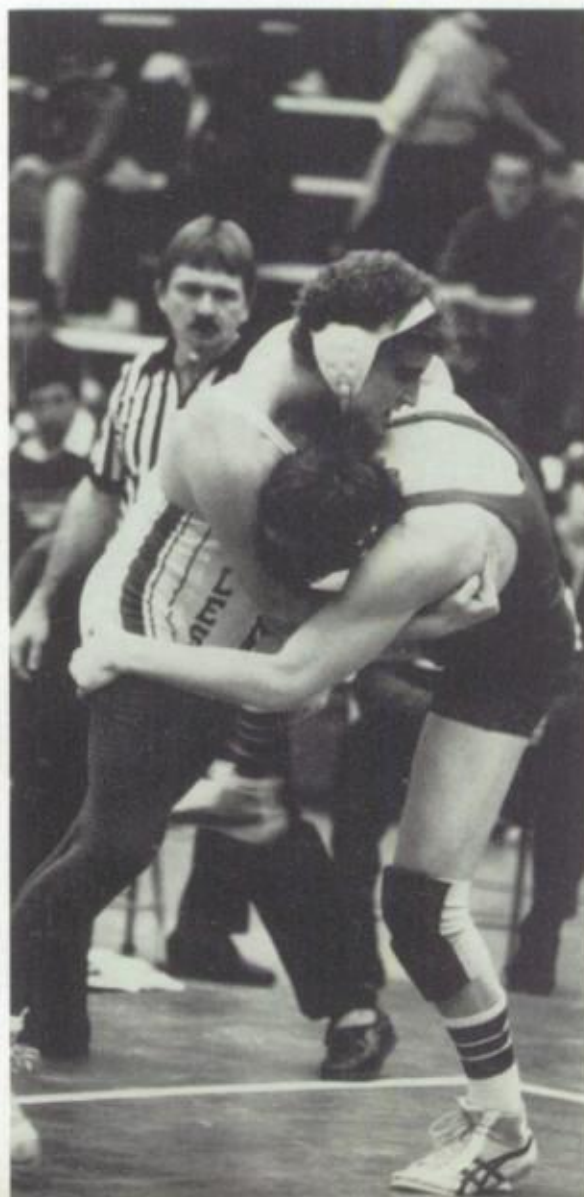

The captains were Glenn Workman and Mike LeVeque.

The Lady Eagles' Varsity basketball team finished their season with a record of 7 wins and 12 losses. This wasn't a much better record but it was a small improvement.

The sectional turned out to be a disappointing one for the Eagles. The Eagles played Highland in the second game. The final score was Highland 76 and Frankton 28.

At the awards banquet this year the awards were given as follows: Most Valuable was given to Michelle Hellmann. Michelle also received the award for Most Rebounds.

The Eagles' Junior Varsity ended their season with a record of 13 wins and only 4 losses. The JV went on a winning streak of 10 wins in a row.

HOSE SPECIAL OCCASIONS

SPRING BREAK '86

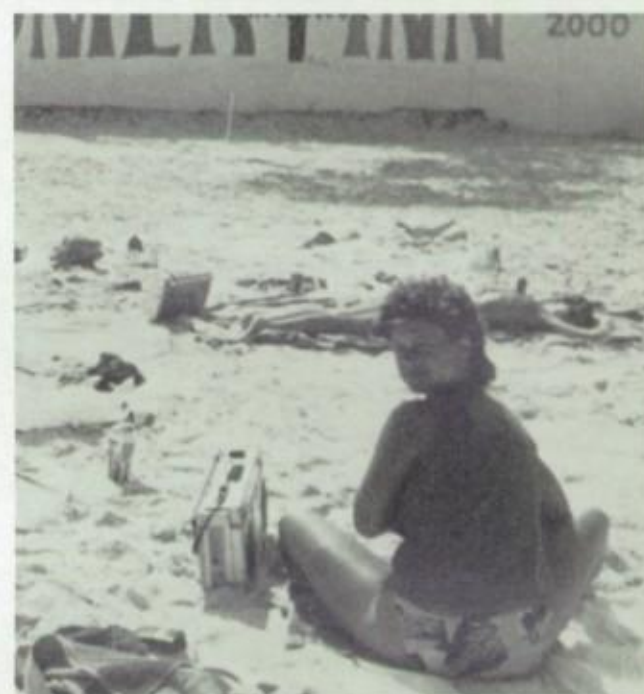

"Have you got everything?" I asked. "Yes, I've got my swimsuit, sunglasses, beach towel, tanning oil, and my Jambox. Look out Florida here we come."

This conversation was something you probably heard people discuss that were heading for Florida. Sunny beaches, gorgeous guys, and beautiful women were things that people looked forward to for Spring Break. Going to Florida for some people meant staying out all night, no parents, no curfew and absolutely no restrictions, but not for all people.

Those who stayed home Spring Break didn't have a dull time. There were parties to attend and cruising to be done even in Indiana.

Whether you went anywhere or not, many students and teachers looked forward to Spring Break '86!

A popular thing to start out the day was to soak up some sun for Sherrie Emmons.

Disney World was one of the many places that Bryce Mallernee visited.

Kelly Wilson and Rena Bott play in the waves.

Karen Robinson grabbed a few Z's on her way to Florida.

Can you guess who's buried underneath the sand.

Kelly Wilson and Rena Bott miss the palm trees.

"Do I look cool or what?"

Forever

in our hearts

The 1986 Junior-Senior prom with the theme 'Forever' was a big success. The color scheme was powder blue, pastel pink, and silver. It was held from 9:00 to 12:00 at the senior citizens building on May 3rd 1986.

Eric Smith was the DJ, as he has been for the past four years.

At 11:00 pm Junior Nathan Canaday announced the '85 prom queen Laurie Miller escorted by Brady Landon and the '86 prom queen candidates and their escorts which were Kristy Abel and Mike O'Donnell, Nannette Barnette and Matt Rastetter, Libby Crowder and Craig Sumner, Renee Musick and Roy Kelly and Susan Ousley and Dan Zent. The excitement grew as Nathan opened the envelope — who will it be thought the crowd, who else but Susan Ousley. The reigning queen then crowned the new 1986 prom queen.

It will always be a night to hold 'Forever' in our hearts, not just for Susan, but for everyone.

Seniors Say 'Good-bye'

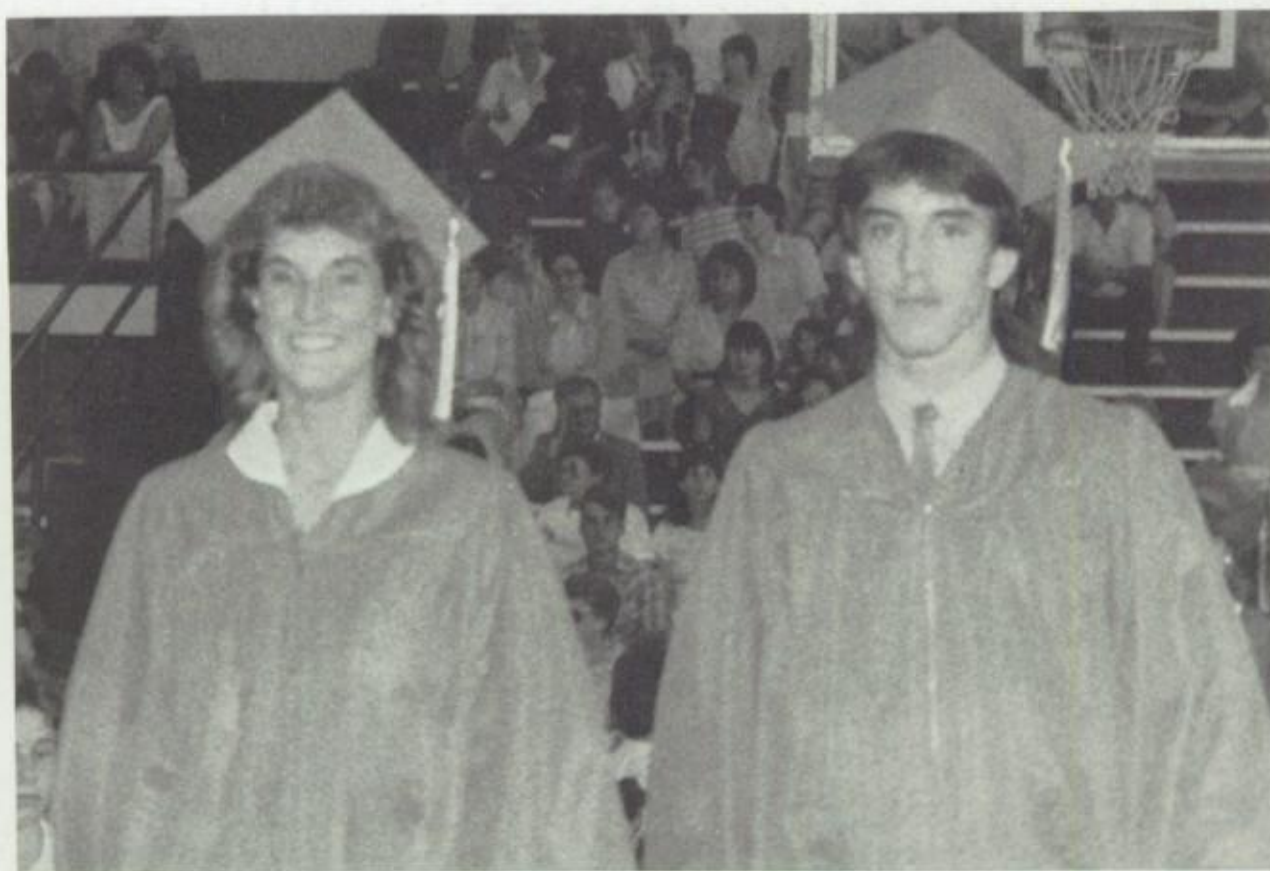

We're not going to bore anyone with the typical graduation story. We're just going to wish the Class of '86 luck and may the love and friendships you shared remain forever in your hearts.

So long F.H.S.

These three seniors are waiting for what they've been looking forward to all year.

Naomi Davis helps Karla Alford with her gown.

Kim Harvey helps Tammy Ritter with her cap.

Tracy Jones and Bill York walk down the aisle.

The salutatorian, Cindy Rybolt, gives her speech.

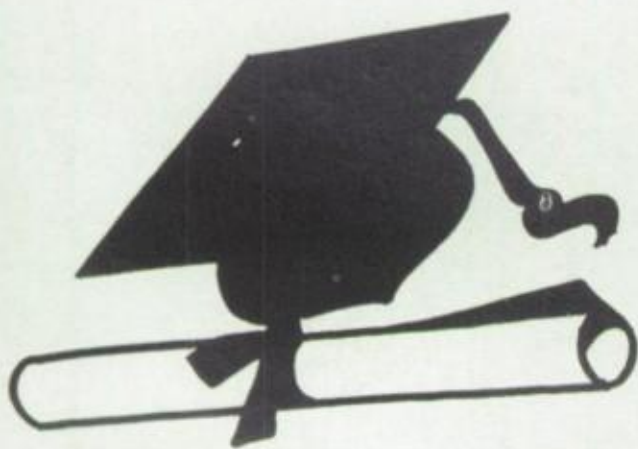

Carla Brown receives her diploma from superintendent Paul Davis.

Mike O'Donnell, valedictorian, gives the traditional speech.

Mike Kinser and Kim Harvey march to the processional.

Lisa Miller can't hardly wait for the final moment.

SCHOOL DAY MEMORIES

As we reach out our hand
The diploma we grasp
While we think of the memories
Of the years in the past.
Tears fill our eyes
Because it's all gone,
We're starting a new life
We have to move on.
We hope friends will keep in touch,
As the years pass us by,
Although it hurts inside
We'll try not to cry.
We think of kindergarten
And our first day,
Now we've reached the end
We are going away.
How do you say good-bye
To friends who mean so much?
Will there be time
To sincerely keep in touch?
You'll always have the memories
Of your school years from day one
Don't think of school as ending,
Think a new life has begun.
